

West Shore Jujitsu Release from Liability

I agree and understand that West Shore Jujitsu and the owners and providers of premises upon which West Shore Jujitsu activities are held, and the owners and providers of facilities, equipment, etc used for West Shore Jujitsu activities assumes no responsibility for accident or injury sustained while participating in a West Shore Jujitsu activity. I agree to hold harmless West Shore Jujitsu, and the owners/providers of facilities used for West Shore Jujitsu activities. I also understand that I am responsible for providing my own medical coverage and take responsibility for participating only in those activities which my own personal health status allows.

Use of likeness

I further agree to allow West Shore Jujitsu to use my likeness in publications of an instructional or promotional nature. I agree not to take any legal action against West Shore Jujitsu for it's use of my likeness and that no compensation is available for it's use.

Compensation

I also understand that any demonstration or instructional programs that I participate in with West Shore Jujitsu are of a purely volunteer, unpaid nature and do not in any way constitute employment and that no compensation, unemployment or health insurance's are provided by West Shore Jujitsu as part of these voluntary activities.

Membership/Dues

I agree to pay monthly dues in a timely manner and that any change in dues amount will be announced at least two months in advance.

Rank/Advancement

I understand and agree that all decisions on rank and advancement will be the sole decision of John Wertz, or current head of West Shore Jujitsu. No guarantee of rank or length of time in rank is expressed or implied.

Sexual Harassment Policy

I understand that the policy of West Shore Jujitsu on sexual harassment is one of zero tolerance. Absolutely no inappropriate touching, comments, propositions, suggestions, or other actions will be tolerated. Any member of West Shore Jujitsu acting in a manner considered inappropriate by the laws and mores of contemporary society will be immediately and permanently expelled from West Shore Jujitsu.
